Going West This Morning-Twelve Converts to the Zionist Faith Immersed in an African Baptist Church, Far Away From Any White Baptist "Flends"

Flijah Dowie made no speeches yesterday. It was said at the Fifth Avenue Hotel last night that he would go West this morning. Dowie and some of his staff went up to Highland Falls yesterday, and it was said up there that the errand was to look at a tract of land near Fort Montgomery a view to purchasing it for a new Zion City. He was accompanied by C. L. Lambert, general passenger agent of the West Shore Railroad, Supt. Christie and eight others. The party went up by special train, consisting of one coach and an engine. The tract is west of Iona Island and is said to belong to the railroad compar y.

A meeting for converts to the Zion Host was held last night in the Zion Baptist Church at 166 Waverley place. Deacon

Church at 166 Waverley place. Deacon Mason was in charge. He said he did not believe that any Baptist Church except this, a negro church, could have been procured for the gathering.

"People say that Dowie has not met with success in New York," said Mason; "that he has collected little money and made few converts. He has made hundreds of converts. He could have had plenty of money if he had toadied to the Standard Oil fiends."

money if he had toadied to the Standard Oil fiends."

Deacon Mason regretted that many people blamed God for the Slocum disaster. "That was all the devil's work," he said.

When the speaker called for those who were ready for the "triune immersion," seven men and five women stood up. Deacon Mason catechised them and sent them to robing rooms behind the platform. The rest of the gathering—fifty men and women—went to the gallery to get a better view of the baptism. In a few minutes a curtain was drawn, showing the converts in a semi-circle, all but one in black baptismal rober. The exception was a woman who retained her shirt waist and skirt.

Deacor Mason entered the pool in full clerical garb, and his assistants helped the regenerate down the ladder to the water, which went to their waists. The men had the ordeal first, each convert being ducked three times and then allowed to hurry to the dressing room.

The women stood the immersion bravely, being ducked three times and then anowed to hurry to the dressing room.

The women stood the immersion bravely, though some of them choked and spluttered. One, Georgette by name, was young and pretty. Another was evidently in ill health, and Deacon Mason prayed for her recovery seems of the diprod her.

WHIST LEAGUE CONGRESS OPENS. Northwestern Association Captures the Breeklyn Trophy.

The fourteenth annual congress of the ican Whist League opened yesterday at the Hotel Majestic, Seventy-second street and Central Park West, and whist players from all over the country congregated, and will have a full week at their favorite game. The ballroom, which fronts on Eighth avenue, was set aside for the use of the players, but this was found to be too small to acc mcdate the crowd and twenty pairs had to be quartered in the Rose Room, upstairs. Among the trophies to be played for is the Hamilton Trophy, which carries with it the championship for teams of four for the season of 1904-5 and is open to teams of four players from each league club. Then there are the Minneapolis Trophy for club pairs, the Brooklyn Trophy, Milwaukee Trophy, Fourteenth Congress Trophy and the Associate Members Trophy, as well as progressive pairs and matches for winning

Owing to it being opening day the pro gramme yesterday was a short one. It trophy, which was found could be managed in one, and two sessions of progressive pairs. Play for the Brooklyn trophy began at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The conditions governing this prize is that it is for teams of twelve players, and each team played a match against each of the other teams, and the scor ing was done under the interclub system. Four teams entered for the trophy as fol-

In the first round Northwestern defeated New Jersey by eighteen tricks and Chicago was victorious over New York by the narrow margin of one trick. The New Yorkers picked up a triffe in the second round and defeated New Jersey by seven tricks while Northwestern and Chicago were a tie. The third round was productive of some fine hands and Northwestern won from New York by nine tricks and the New Jerseyites fell easy victims to Chicago by five tricks. Thus, according to the total score, the Brooklyn trophy was won by the Northwestern Association which secured 2½ matches and 27 tricks: Chicago had also 2½ matches, but only 6 tricks; New York had 1 match with 6 tricks and New Jersey did not account for either a match or a trick, so that Northwestern won on the trick score.

tricks and New Jersey did not account, either a match or a trick, so that Northwestern won on the trick score.

Four hours were devoted to the progressive pairs—two in the afternoon and two in the evening. In the earlier session there were thirteen pairs in section A, north and south, the winners being Mrs. E. C. Mitchell and L. J. Bruck, with 177, plus 7½. W. F. Wyman and H. H. Ward were the winners east and west, with 177, plus 8 9-13.

In section B north and south Biram A. Smith and George B. Welser won with 193, 9 plus and the east and west, Mrs. Joseph Widmer and Mrs. George Johnston, won with 162, 9 plus.

Mrs. J. H. Gates and A. L. Burnham distinguished themselves in section C. north and south, by winning with 100 plus 6, and the winners east and west were C. T. Robertson and A. J. Halle, 144, plus 4.

The programme to-day will be a lengthy one. At 11 colock in the morning there will be the first business session, and in the afternoon will take place the first round of the Hamilton trophy and the second round in the evening. Besides there will be two sessions of the progressive pairs.

GOLF. Professionals Off for the Western Championship. There will be only a slim contingent of horal professionals in the open championship of the Western Golf Association, to be held at the Kent Country Club, Grand Rapids, Mich., on Thursday and Friday, but the number will include Aleck Smith of Nassau, present holder of the title.

Sinith left yesterday for the tournament, and on Saturday those who started were George Low of Baltusrol, Bernard Nicholle and Wil-

Anderson of Apawamis, the former Western open champion. The party will stay in the West until after the open championship of the United States Golf Association at Glen View, July 8 and 2. A number of other Eastern professionals are going on for that event. The governors of the Sound Beach Golf and Country Club have been increased to an even dozen. The new links is in good condition, and the schedule of matches will be issued in a few days.

Under the heading "An Unreported Incident," Golfing of England urints the following:
The award has gone to Mr. Tvavis, and in every sense it is bad sportsmanship to raise the cry that he virtually loss his game to James Robb in the second round. This, however, is what is being talked about at Sandwich and in the clubhouses throughout the country since it has leaked out that Mr. Robb ignored a claim he could have legitimately made for a foul at a stage of the game when the score would have been reversed, putting Robb and not Travis 1 up.
Gossip says that it was unfair to the other players in the tournament, and the grievance is echoed again and again that Robb should have claimed the hole.
The grounds of his claim, it appears, were in-again and again that Robb should have claimed the hole.

The grounds of his claim, it appears, were indisputable. Travis at the critical moment of the heat called for his caddie to lift the flag, and the lad—how a caddie could have made such a mistake is inexplicable—lifted the ball instead.

There was no referee, or the affair would have been settled ou the spot.

On the other hand, it is stated that had Robb known that Travis claimed a hole from Holden for grounding his club in a bunker in the previous heat—a perfectly legal proceeding under the bylaws of the Royal St. George Golf Links—he would have insisted on the caddle's error being counted to his own total.

SHRUBB'S WONDERFUL RUNNING Beats Amateur and Professional Records at Two and Four Miles.

Arthur Shrubb of the South London Harriers made another assault on the distance running records recently and succeeded in lowering both amateur and professional records for the two and four miles. Shrubb's performance took place at games of the West of Scotland Harriers, June 11 and 13 at Ibrox Park, Glasgow, Scotland. The time for the two miles was 9 minutes 9 3-5 at 1brox Park, Glasgow, Scotland. The time for the two miles was 9 minutes 9 3-5 seconds, and thir completely wipes all previous records off the slate, including Bill Lang's old mark of 9 minutes 11 seconds, which had stood for the last forty years. The time for the mile was 4 minutes 27 seconds.

Not content with such a wonderful piece of running. Shrubb turned out for the mile handicap a little later and cantered home a winner in 4 minutes 23 s-5 seconds. These races occurred on a Saturday and on the Monday following and at the same meeting, which covered two days, Shrubb, tackled the four mile handicap. He had to allow big starts, but it was evident after a mile or so that he would win. His time for the three miles was 14 minutes 27 1-5 seconds, which broke the long standing Scotch record held by F. A. Bacon by two-fifths of a second. Shrubb's time for the full distance was 19 minutes 23 2-5 seconds, breaking all former records, both amsteur and professional.

OARSMEN READY FOR RACES.

CORNELL FAVORITE FOR VARSITY AND FRESHMEN EVENTS.

Wisconsin Considered a Dangerous Factor in the Main Struggle-The Bedgers Also Expect to Make Strong Bid in the Fours-Hard Luck for Quakers.

POUGHEEPSIE, June 27 .- All the hotels are filled to-night with enthusiastic college men who are looking forward eagerly to the intercollegiate regatta on the Hudson

All fear Cornell, whose superb and incomparable carsmanship has won glory for the Red and White for three years past. The Badgers, who are regarded as Cornell's most formidable competitor in the 'varsity con-test, are confident of second place, and, because of the emergency which has com-pelled Courtney to row two of the Cornell men in both the four oared and eight cared races, they may do even better and victory for which they have journeyed many long and weary miles. At Wisconsin's quar-ters to-night it was said that the carsmen are in perfect physical condition and that the crew is the fastest that has ever been

The illness of Capt. Coffin of the Cornell eight, which necessitated his removal to Dr sadlier's sanitarium, is regretted by whole rowing contin ant. He is suffering from malaria, Hi. mother, Mrs. A. W. Coffin of Indianapolis is with him. Capt. Coffin stroked last year's winning crew. He seems to be very much run down, and a hard ime row on Wednesday brought on a collapse E. T. Foote is rowing in his place at No. 2, and will also stroke the 'vareity four: George Foote, who rows No. 4 in the 'varsity eight, will row at No. 3 in the 'varsity four, in place of Forbes, who is suffering from blood poisoning. Coach Courtney declares that the experiment of putting double duty on two of the oaramen will not hazard Cornell's chances n the warsity contest, which will be rowed

After rowing out the two miles in the four cared race, the Footes will have two hours to rest in, and they are confident that they will take their seats in the varsity eight fresh will take their seats in the varsity eight read and eager for the fray. Both have thoroughly mastered the Courtney style of rowing, and in practice the Footes show form equal to the other members of the senior eight.

"Although it is the first time that men have been asked to do double duty in races in intercollegiate rowing in this country," said Coach Courtney this afternoon, "the Foote boys are confident they will be equal to the strain. Their fathers have given their consent. E. T. Foote's father is here on his yacht, which is anchored near the Cornell quarters. He is a resident of Ishaca and is connected with Sage College. His brother, the father of George Foote, who lives at Vineland, N. J., is with him.

A host of Columbia good wishers are here to-night rooting for the Blue and White. Francis S. Bangs, who has interested himself in aquatics at Columbia for a number of years, reports all serene at the Morningside quarters at West Park. The men are physically fit, and it is hoped that they will make a good showing. But little has been seen of Columbia's practice.

They have followed the custom of Harvard, who occupied the Top before them, of doing their practice stunts in the cove north of their boat house in a secluded locality. Columbia has been here nearly a month and the men are thoroughly accustomed to the water conditions.

It is pointed out that Coach Peet in 1885, when Columbia won the 'varsity race, set a precedent for a long practice period at Poughkeepsie. In rough water that year Columbia won a decisive victory over Cornell and Pennsylvania.

The Georgetown varsity eight is regarded by many as a factor to be considered tomorrow. Coach Dempeny is satisfied with their rowing. Former Cosch Zapponi predicts that the Georgetowns will be nearer first than last in the "warsity race, act a precedent for a shell against the float. The shell was repaired and used in practice this afternoon.

On his way to the bosthouse H. H. Block, oreshman, who rows at No, en the Junior and eager for the fray. Both have thoroughly mastered the Courtney style of rowing, and breaking of a shell against the float. The shell was repaired and used in practice this afternoon.

On his way to the bosthouse H. H. Block, a freshman, who rows at No. 4 in the junior shell, sprained his ankle. J. W. Townsend, Jr., was assigned to his seat. Rounding out the hard luck happenings, A. B. Mills, the freshman coxswain, fell on a pitcher and cut a gash in his breast.

Neither Pennsylvania, Columbia nor Syracuse is expected to do better than third, yet they all have the chance that goes with a dark horse in a boat race and which last year landed Georgetown so unexpectedly in second place in the 'varsity contest. It seems certain that the race will not be a walkover for Cornell as it was last year, and that the six crews will make a game and more or less even fight to the finish.

For the freshmen race Cornell is regarded as a winner, with Syracuse a good second. The four oared race for the first time will have an entry of five crews, C-rnell, Columbia, Georgetown, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin. In the contest the sharps look for the Ithacans cornell for the 'varsity race. The first pools gave the field as slight advantage, but later the field odds were reduced, and pienty of Cornell money was offered at $10 to 38 and $10 to 37, with few takers. MIMOSA WINS ON THE SOUND. Takes First Bace in the Manhamet Cup

Trenor L. Park's 30-foot yacht Mimosa representing the American Yacht Club, won yesterday the first race of a series of three for the Manhasset Bay Yacht Club's Challenge Cup. The race was sailed over a sixteen mile course on Long Island Sound, in light breezes and smooth water. The Mimosa won from the Nike by 8 minutes 40 seconds, orrected time; from the Bobtail by 4 minutes se seconds, and from the Alert by 4 minutes

The starters were Mimoss, Trenor L. American Yacht Club; Alert, H. L. Maxwell, Manhasest Bay Yacht Club; Nike, Victor I. Cumnock, Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Club and the Bobtail, Edgar F.
